

Grzegorz Ostrowski

g.ostrowski@uw.edu.pl

Education:

- 2016-2019 BSc in biology at University of Warsaw
2019-2021 MSc in biology at University of Warsaw
2021-now PhD in biology at University of Warsaw

Research projects:

- 2019 voluntary work in OPUS 13 nr. 2017/25/B/NZ8/00473 project:
“Influence of soil contamination on the occurrence and diversity of Mucoromycota and their endosymbiotic bacteria”
- 2021 voluntary work in Tango-IV-C/0005/2019 project:
“Biostarters development for dry aged beef production”

Conference participation:

- 2019 1st edition of student mycological conference “Mycorise Up!”, poster
“Influence of Paraburkholderia rhizoxinica bacteria on growth rate of fungus Rhizopus microsporus”
- 2021 2nd edition of student mycological conference “Mycorise Up!” presentation
“Mucoraceae diversity on the dry-aged beef”

Traineeship:

- 2018 Traineeship for people participating in and performing procedures
using animals for scientific and medical purposes